B. For each question, choose the correct answer.

(1X7=7 marks)

A. Anne
	My name is Anne and I'm a taxi driver. I drive the taxi daily from four pm till midnight. I prefer taking the airport routes; this means that I may drive to the airport and return to the city five or six times a day! By the end of the day, I'm exhausted. It's a very tiring job!
B. Helen
	I'm Helen and I'm a nurse! I work at a hospital. I work eight hours a day and at the weekends, too. As most nurses do, I work shifts; this means that for one week I work in the mornings, and for the next one I work in the evenings. Sometimes, I have night shifts meaning that I work throughout the night taking care of patients. Night shifts are hard since they take longer than eight hours; sometimes I have to work up to twelve hours a shift.
C. Peter
	My name is Peter and I'm a receptionist at a hotel. I'm responsible for the checking in and checking out of the guests. I must check and write down their details. I give the guests their room keys and I answer any questions they may have. I answer the phone for any questions people have and I write and respond to emails. It's a hard but pleasant job because I get to meet a lot of people from around the world.
