Mount Fuji in Japan is beautiful and artistic. Sitting peacefully with its cold blue face makes it a popular subject of photography for most nature photographers like me. From October to February, the whole area looks stunning covered in snow. I have been there, and it was an amazing experience.

Black Friday

The day after Thanksgiving is the start of the holiday shopping season. Since Thanksgiving is always on a Thursday, the following day is known as Black Friday. In fact, it has been the busiest shopping day of the year since 2005. It is a day when many stores have big sales and discounts. People like to shop for gifts for their friends and family.

Most stores offer great deals on Black Friday to attract customers. Some items like TVs are much cheaper than usual. However, there may not be many of these low-priced items available. People wait in line for a long time to try to get them. Some people leave disappointed.

Some Black Friday events have been violent. Fights have broken out over toys or people cutting in line. People have shot one another over parking spots. But most Black Friday events are safe and fun. Still, if you plan on going, expect large crowds and a bit of pushing and shoving.

So where does the name “Black Friday” come from? It was first used in Philadelphia in the 1950s. The police called this day Black Friday because of the heavy traffic. Although some stores tried to change the name to “Big Friday” in the 1960s, “Black Friday” stuck and spread to stores across the country. It seems that it is here to stay.

Now people all over the country take part in the event known as Black Friday. It is even spreading to other parts of the world. Stores have held Black Friday events in the U.K., Australia, and Brazil since 2012. In Costa Rica, Black Friday is known as “Viernes Negro.” In Mexico, stores offer an annual weekend of discounts. They call it “El Buen Fin,” which means “the good weekend” in Spanish.

Edinburgh

A visit to Scotland often begins in Edinburgh, the capital city of Scotland. Edinburgh is an old city with many important and interesting buildings. After London, Edinburgh is the second city for visitors in Britain.

If you come to Edinburgh by train from the south, the first thing you see when you leave Waverley Station is Edinburgh Castle. It stands high over the city. Soldiers in kilts take visitors around and tell them the castle's story.

Edinburgh is a hilly city, but it is a city to visit on foot. After the castle, you can visit more of the Old Town. Go down the Royal Mile to Holyroodhouse – the Queen's home when she visits Edinburgh. It is three hundred years old.

You can look at the shops on the Royal Mile or on Princes Street in the New Town. Some shops sell the famous Scottish tartans, and you can see the name of the family which goes with each tartan. Near Princes Street is Charlotte Square, which is very beautiful. There is also the National Gallery of Scotland, with pictures from Scotland and from many other countries too.

In August, you can visit the Edinburgh Festival, the biggest arts festival in the world with hundreds of different things to do and see.
