Beauty and the Beast (2017)

Fantasy / Romance

Belle (Emma Watson), a clever and beautiful young woman, meets a beast (Dan Stevens) who captures her and takes her to its castle. Belle is very scared because the beast looks dangerous and she is really worried. As time goes by, she makes some new friends at the castle. They are magic ‘things’ that can talk and they take care of the beast. Belle slowly learns to live with the ugly and terrifying beast and she slowly loves it because it has a good heart. In the end, she learns that the beast isn’t what it looks like.

“Beauty and the Beast” is a classic film for all the family. The actors are great. Emma Watson and Dan Stevens give an amazing performance.

The girls will especially love Belle and she will be their favourite character in the film. The story is sad at first but it has got a beautiful, happy ending. It is recommended to anyone who likes romantic fairytale films.

Dear Mike,

How are you? I have got a new computer. I love it. I play games on it after school. It is great fun.

I really have great fun at my volleyball club. I go there every Friday after school. The club opens at 5 o'clock. We play for an hour. I am in the red team and I wear a red t-shirt. The red team is better than the blue team. We win all the games. My dad watches me every week.

Can you come and play volleyball with me? Mum can pick you up after school.

We can have fun!

Please call me or email me.

See you soon,

Jason
