My new school

Hello, I'm Carmen! I come from Spain, but recently I moved to London and went to a private school there.

First, I couldn't find the school. It is in an isolated place, so it was very difficult to get there.

Then the school rules were different from my previous school. I must wear a uniform and I mustn't run in the school building. But, like in Spain, I mustn't eat or drink in class, I mustn't chew gum and I mustn't cheat in tests, either.

I like my new school; the teachers are kind and attentive. The school building is in excellent condition. I made some new friends in my classroom.

After school, I get the same orders at home. My mother keeps telling me: "get up, don't be late, and make your bed".

Some things never change!
