EXERCISE 3

(10x1=10 marks)

You will hear a broadcast about the new Netflix film 'The Dinosaurs'. Listen and underline the correct word in brackets.

'The Dinosaurs' Film

A new series has scored 100 per cent on the review site Rotten Tomatoes and is at 1. (place / number / chart) one on Netflix. The mini-series is a four-episode Netflix documentary. It is called The Dinosaurs. It has 2. (powerful / wonderful / meaningful) figures from Hollywood behind it. Superstar actor Morgan Freeman narrated it. Legendary director Steven Spielberg is the executive producer. He also 3. (produced / directed / developed) the blockbuster movie Jurassic Park. Mr Spielberg used 50 experts on 4. (history / prehistory / historic) to help make the show. They recreated what life on Earth looked like between 235 million and 66 million years ago. The four episodes document how the 5. (earlier / earliest / early) dinosaurs developed, survived for millions of years, and became 6. (extinct / distinct / restrict).

The producers used CGI to 7. (locate / create / relate) the landscapes and dinosaurs. CGI designers recreated the ancient supercontinent of Pangea. This was a single land mass that slowly broke apart over tens of millions of years to form the continents of today. The 8. (inventors / creators / designers) also made volcanic eruptions, sand storms, floods, million-year-old forests, and, of course, the dinosaurs. The series starts with the 9. (birth / earth / bath) of tiny dinosaurs. It ends with the enormous T. rex and triceratops, which Freeman says are "the most iconic dinosaurs of all time". It also shows us the asteroid 10. (packed / compact / impact) event that killed off the dinosaurs. The Guardian newspaper reviewed the series. It said, "the geology and meteorology are powerfully rendered".
