- B. Drawing information from the following magazine extracts write an essay for an international website entitled: The advantages and disadvantages of paying attention to physical appearance. Give examples to support your views.

Students are expected to present both the advantages and disadvantages of this topic.

Appearance (clothes, make up, hair styled, body shape, hair implants, improve body parts etc.)

Advantages

- receive an unbelievably large amount of positive attention due to human tendency to judge others by outer appearance
- receive flattering comments about your appearance
- success in school: teachers/classmates can be more positive towards you/ help more easily, even do favours for you
- social life: be more popular, invited to parties, fun events/ success with the opposite sex
- enhances career prospects /more carrier opportunities: usually beautiful people do better at job interviews especially in the entertainment industry.
- Feeling of belonging, acceptance, inclusion
- Boost your self-confidence and self esteem
- Love yourself /you look the way you like
- Believe in yourself and your potentials: be more productive, efficient at work/school

Disadvantages

- Fake friends/ can be with you to show off
- Pressure on you, you are expected to look good all the time, so that when you don't look particularly good one day, people usually point it out
- Not be taken seriously for a relationship
- Neglect your mental, spiritual world/ inner beauty
- Cause health problems: diets, eating disorders, anorexia
- Risk of damaging your appearance during an unsuccessful operation
- Getting stressed even depressed to look better and better
- Requires time and money (plastic surgeries are costly)
- Attract stalkers in your real life and on social media
- Cause rivalry and jealousy /some people are suspicious of you, and are not very friendly
