1.	Who lives in the centre of a city?	A	B	C
2.	Who had a full night's sleep?	A	B	C
3.	Who went on holiday to a friend's house?	A	B	C
4.	Who didn't enjoy the weather when s/he was on holiday?	A	B	C
5.	Who did something s/he didn't enjoy?	A	B	C
6.	Who tried something new?	A	B	C
7.	Who enjoyed eating at restaurants?	A	B	C

A. Christie
	My name is Christie. I live with my family in a village. Last summer, we went camping near the sea. It was fun but the tent was small. Every night, my brother woke me up when he moved. We went swimming and walking. I loved swimming and looking at the stars, but I hated walking three minutes to the shower.
B. Ricardo
	My name's Ricardo. I live with my family near the sea. Last summer we went to the countryside. Every day we went for family walks and visited some parks. We enjoyed delicious dinners at local restaurants and had some picnics, too. The only thing I didn't really like was the temperature. Some days were very hot!
C. Emma
	My name is Emma. My family and I live in the city centre. Last summer, we went to stay on my friend's farm. Every day, we cycled for hours. Every night, we were really tired and slept for a long time. In the evening, we sat round the kitchen table, ate dinner and talked. One day, we rode horses too - it was my first time and I loved it!

Prince Harry wrote a book about his life, his mother's death, his relationship with the newspapers, and being a royal. It is called 'Spare'. The word 'spare' means something that is only there if another thing is lost or broken. 'Spare' points to the fact that Harry could become king only if his father and brother died. One can find this book in 16 languages, and it has become very popular. A member of Britain's Royal Family has never spoken so honestly before. Many stories in "Spare" are shocking. Harry writes about why he moved to the USA, how he fell out with his family, and why he stopped being a royal. He also talks about how some newspapers in the UK wrote bad things about his wife Meghan. He says his brother Prince William attacked him and he talks about a war he took part in.	HIS WORDS.
