A Travel Guide to Bangkok

Whether you're travelling to the islands or the mountains of Thailand, you're likely to spend at least one night in its capital city on the way. Bangkok might be noisy and polluted, but it's also an exciting city with plenty of things to see and do. Why not make it a longer stay?

Where to stay

The Khao San Road was a famous traveller spot even before Leonardo di Caprio's character in the film The Beach stayed there. But it's noisy, not very pretty and not very Thai. For something more authentic, Phra Kanong offers an alternative place to stay, with its fantastic street markets where everyday Bangkok people eat, work and live. It's not as convenient for the main tourist sites, but it has a Skytrain station, so you can be at the Grand Palace in 20 minutes.

How to get around

Bangkok's traffic can be a nightmare. Sure, you can easily take a taxi – if you want to spend hours stuck in traffic jams – but there are two much better but more expensive ways to get around the city. To explore the temples and historical sites, catch an express boat river taxi or a longtail boat along the Chao Phraya River and the canals. For the modern part of the city, the Skytrain is a fast way to travel from the river to the shopping malls and nightlife of Sukhumvit, and the famous Chatuchak street market.

Where to eat

The simple answer is: everywhere! Thai street food is among the best in the world, and for around $5 you can eat one of the many filling and delicious dishes. Some food stands have little plastic seats where you can sit and eat and they cook the same dish over and over, like fried chicken on rice or Pad Thai noodles. For better service head for Chinatown – Yaowarat Street – and choose whatever looks most interesting from the many excellent Chinese and Thai restaurants and food stands.

What to do

You can visit some of the main sites like the Giant Buddha at the temple of Wat Pho and the spectacular Grand Palace. Many tourists go for shopping at Chatuchak market. Before leaving the city make sure you check out the snake farm and buy many products made with snake meat. You can watch the live snake show and you can even touch a snake yourself if you want to!

1. Which of the following is true about Bangkok?

- a. It is a quiet city.
- b. A movie was filmed there.

2. Phra Kanong is the best place to stay if ...

- a. you are interested in a more traditional experience.
- b. you want to be within walking distance from the main tourist attractions.

3. What is a disadvantage of travelling around the city by taxi?

- a. There aren't many taxis available.
- b. It will cost you more money than other means of transport.
- c. It will take you longer time than other means of transport.

4. Thai food ...

- a. is of a limited variety.
- b. is at an affordable price.
- c. can be only bought in Yaowarat Street.

- b. The temple of Wat Pho.
