

European Day of Languages
School Year 2025 - 2026
VERGINA GYMNASIUM LARNACA
Information leaflet, quiz, lecture, projects and music

As part of the celebration for the European Day of Languages on September 26th 2025, a language quiz with small prizes for the winners was prepared by the language teachers and was open to the entire school during the break, while music in different languages was played over the school announcement system.

A lecture on “Multilingualism” by Mr Christos Christofi, Assistant Professor at the French and European Studies Department of the University of Cyprus, was organized on October 8th 2025, whilst students prepared language projects which were displayed on the school's bulletin boards. Furthermore, an information leaflet on the importance of learning foreign languages was prepared by the teachers, shared and discussed with the students in class.
